

English, Being Imaginative

Listen to story 'The Artist Who Painted a Horse Blue' <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=-u8EP4EJ5oE>

Can you imagine some funny colour mix ups with other animals and write a simple sentence to go with your pictures. For example: A pink frog.

Being Imaginative, Exploring & Using Media

Think about the story 'The Day the Crayons Quit' – What if you couldn't use some colours anymore? How would your paintings and drawings look?

Draw a picture where you can only use the same shades of one colour.

Complete 'How are you today?' 2Do.

Log on to https://www.purplemash.com/#tab/pm-home/art/paint_projects_animals and choose an animal to paint in the style of Franz Marc.

Listen to 'Who put the colours in the rainbow?' <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=l9GsKFIaRo0>

Which questions could you answer before it got to the end? Imagine the things they sing about weren't there? i.e. no colours in the rainbow?

The World, Being Imaginative, Exploring & Using Media

The world around us can provide us with lots of colours, when you go out exploring can you make a rainbow using nature? A 'Nature Rainbow'? Think carefully about the size of your Nature Rainbow and where to build it. Then send me a picture along with a list of what you used to create it.

Express Yourself is our new theme so our activities are linked to being creative. I want to focus on how art can be a way to enable the children's imaginations to develop. I've chosen books which will enable them to see the importance of colours but also explore and express their own creativity.

Colours are so important and can be used to show people's feelings; for example the symbol of the rainbow has made people feel better during the past few months.

Being Imaginative, Exploring & Using Media

The story 'The artist who painted a horse blue' made me think about a German artist called Franz Marc. He painted animals but used colours you wouldn't expect to see. I want you to think of an animal you can paint or build a model of an animal and then paint using strange colours – like Franz.

Franz Marc's paintings: Blue Horse, Yellow Cow and Blue Wolf. Could you also recreate these in chalk outside?

PSED, Being Imaginative, Exploring & Using Media

Colour can help brighten up everyone's day – think about how you can add a splash of colour to someone's day in a creative way indoors or out. Send me a picture to show me what you decided to do! 😊

As ever, please email photos of the children working on the above or of them developing other important skills to me at g.hanley200@durhamlearning.net.
