

Welcome

Welcome to the new school year, whether you are joining us in nursery or moving into reception, I am looking forward to working with you and your child.

We will start the year with a whole school topic called 'Altogether Again' this will focus on getting the children settled back into the school routines and Personal, Social and Emotional Development. We will then move onto 'This is me', in this topic we will talk about families, how the children have grown/changed and their likes and dislikes.

This is Me!
